

Misunderstood and falsely accused

Dr. Byron Morgan

Intro

when our friends give us bad advice and we have a melt down we transfer that perception to God and thus don't have a false perception of God.

Context

His friends

Bildad is a traditionalist

It's easy to give a simplistic answer and try and solve the problem. But it takes a true friend to not say anything and stand by them. There is always someone who wanted to give a Biblical answer.

Be careful about your answers

omnipotent grace all powerful grace

Job's friends never prayed with

Job's questions

If I could stand before God what could I say?

Is it possible to have a mediator?

If I tried to be positive how would that help me?
