

God's Plan for the Future - Part 1

Dr. Byron Morgan

Intro

- We often want to be prepared and look ahead in our lives to see what is coming.
- There are more movies being made about the end of the world today.
- When you study prophecy you are able to see what is going to happen; it is history prewritten.

Why are there those who do not preach escotology today?

- Avoiding contraversial subjects - 1 Tim 2:14
- We want to keep things “practical” and simple; basic.

Reasons to study prophecy:

- Prophecy is replete throughout the Bible. More than half of the Bible is predictive.
- Prophecy answers the difficult questions in the Bible:
- Prophecy encourages patient waiting. James 5:7-8
- Prophecy puts everything into perspective.
- Prophecy is to have a purifying effect on the life of the believer 1 Peter 1:13, 4:7

Dangers of studying prophecy

- The danger of setting dates and making dogmatic declarations Acts 1:6-7, Matthew 14:36. Many people feed on the emotions of men.
- Making the study of prophecy an end of itself. 2 Peter 3:13. Remember that we are preparing for the return of Christ - that is the purpose of prophecy; to develop our relationship with Christ.

Paradise lost; Paradise gained (heaven).
